Protection Sophistry Exposed. We earnestly invite the attention of our read ers, of all clauses, to the following able and per inent article, from the Cincinnati Genette of the 27th ult., illustrating the oppressive and unjust GOVERNMENT AS A NURSE. Mr. Schenck, rectying to Mr. Wigans on the protective question, said :

His destrine is this: a tariff can only consti-tutionally be laid for revenue; it may be that in laying it even for revenue alone, some citizen or some home interest will be helped; but it is a It has been said that there is no one so happy as a maiden in her teens. We have seen many soldiers who were fully as happy is their canteens.

The Revolution settles the dish-washing question by quoting from it. Kings, xxi., 13:

'I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish; wiping it and turning it upside down."

—We give this week a large amount of our space to the proceedings of last Friday, the fullest account jet published of the reception given the Veterans of 1812.

—A voice comes from Washington Territory

Introductly Be laid for revenue alone, some citizen or some home interest will be helped; but it is a pity and to be deplored. Great Heaven I is that to be our idea of government? I always thought to be regarded as the great affect and supplying her ordinary needs, she could shower plenty broadcast over the land, it was a thing every patriot ought to congratulate himself on rather than think it, as my colleague does, a pity! something to be "deprecated!" What a narrow, selfab, heartless, bard policy of government that must be which shrinks from building up anything, from helping auvbody, from advancing any interest

THE GAZETTE'S BEPLY. This is a full exhibition of Mr. Schenck's idea of political economy: that the Government is a mother whose duty is to nurse the people, and to shower plenty over the land. And how is Gov the races which take place to-morrow at Parks.
